Approve: AGENDA

Inverness Association – 5 minutes if there are any reports

Inverness Foundation -

1. Jairemarie Pomo, Disaster Council Coordinator for Inverness, will come to talk with us about what she has been working on in the community.

She has offered to write an article for the Bagpiper to inform our members about their localized (neighborhood) groups, the area coordinators and liaisons, etc. who are compiling the neighborhood rosters for all forms of disaster preparedness – ARE YOU ON ONE OF THESE ROSTERS ALREADY? -- clearly, on March 11th we learned how important this organizational structure will be in a disaster to promote greater safety for our residents

Proposed Action: hear about the DCC's work to date
20 minutes

2. Topics for the Bagpiper and assigning them to the appropriate parties
Tom Branan: Museum and Dewey's book
Tom Gaman: Chicken Ranch and the work that will be done soon
Alex: The upcoming Inverness Faire
Catherine: Membership and what is it we do vis a vis development proposals
Kathy: Aberdeen Property and our plans
Francine: FOG and the roof plans for Gables
Joyce, Seana, Bob – what would you like to contribute
Proposed action: board volunteers to do an article during the month of April 10 minutes

-- Jairemarie Pomo will write an article on disaster preparedness

3. "Closed Session" – we will discuss the Aberdeen Property negotiations and options
20 minutes

DO YOU HAVE ANY CONCERNS ABOUT TRAILS THAT I NEED TO TELL BURTON ABOUT???

Next Meeting: April 25th;
Third quarter financials will be presented in April
